TOKIO, Nov. 7 (By The Associated Press).—The Cabinet, it was reported by the press yesterday, has decided to withdraw the Japanese troops from the Chestao area, along the Korean-Manchurian border, despite the fact that the activities of the bandits and Korean insurgents—to combat which the troops were sent—have not been suppressed, provided that China will undertake to maintain order and protect Japanese life and property. The Diplomatic Council has been summend to consider the Cabinet's proposal.
